KINGSVILLE.

A happy New Year.
Mrs. J. L. Johnson gave an elegant dinner on Thursday evening. Every one agrees that Mrs. Johnson's dinners are, as a rule, swell affairs, and to this rule there seems to be no exception, certainly not, was the dinner of Thursday evening, which was beautiful in every appointment.

Mrs. Cicero Reynolds, of Stanford, and Mrs. F. P. Hancey, of Danville, attended the funeral of their nephew, Tecumseh Waters. Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Huns, of McKinney, were the guests of Mrs. J. L. Johnson. Miss Katherine Wells, of Caldwell College, Danville, accompanied by Lisle Evans, of Junction City, came down Thursday to visit Miss Lucille Johnson.

Our town has been and since the tragedy on Christmas day. Tecumseh Waters, who was shot and killed by Tom Lee, was buried Thursday afternoon in their family burying ground; a large concourse of people being present. The heart-broken mother, who is seriously ill from the effects of the shock, and the sisters and brothers, have our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement as have also the saddened family of the man who, as it seems, was compelled to commit the action.

Mrs. B. C. Pennybacker, daughter Miss Gertrude, and niece, Miss Elizabeth McFarland, spent Xmas with Mrs. D. P. Dineen at Somerset. Miss Edie H. Carey, one of Kingsville's prettiest young ladies, assisted Messrs. Walter during the rush of Christmas trade and proved to be an efficient clerk. Miss Clara Dunn has gone on an extended visit to relatives and friends in Grant county. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hester and son, Claude, spent Xmas with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gooch at McKinney. Ed McCarty left Wednesday for Pineville and Williamsburg to visit relatives.

HUBBLE.

T. C. Rankin has gone South with a load of mules.
Judd House's wife died of consumption last week.

N. L. Hubbs bought the D. N. Prewitt farm at $52.

Pearce Hoffman sold his place of eight acres for $300.

M. H. Eubanks has sold his sheep to R. D. Bruce at $1.85.

Jas. Sutton has sold his hemp to Marksbury for $5.25.

S. M. Spoonamore has rented his shop to Young Dalley, of near Marksbury.

Miss Jennie Hand and Marshall Daniels, were married in Danville and will leave for Illinois soon.

The officers of the Christian church have employed Bro. Moore, of the Lancaster church, to preach here for next year on the first and third Sunday evenings in each month.

Hazzards are cutting James Robinson's sheep alive. Some have the animal eaten off their backs and heads. Some are still alive, and others have been from the effects. Some of the hazzards have been shot off the sheep while running from them.

At a meeting of the democratic committee of Garrard county held Dec. 21, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, that the democratic committee of Garrard county heartily endorse the able and efficient service of Hon. George T. Farris in the Senate of Kentucky during the late perilous session, and we earnestly recommend his re-nomination and election to the same office. T. B. ROBINSON, chairman. M. D. HUGHES, sec'y.

A letter from R. C. Bywaters at Nez Perces, Idaho, says: "This has been a great, grand and glorious year for the people of this reservation. Flax at $1.65 a bushel; oats, $1 a hundred; wheat 45 cents; yearling steers, $25; two-year-olds, $35; three-year-olds, $45 to $50 and everything else in proportion, with next year's prospects just as bright."

At Mayfield Sheriff Sam Douthitt and Deputy John Usher went to the home of Charles Howell, a dive keeper, to arrest Birch Hollowy. He resisted arrest and Usher fired on him. Howell ran into the room and shot Usher through the heart, and was in turn shot and killed by Sheriff Douthitt.

The directors of the German National Bank of Newport, decided to offer no reward for Brown, the defaulting assistant cashier. They think, no doubt that they have spent enough money on him.

The estimated production of gold and silver for the 20 years ending 1900, was as follows: Gold, 1,220,000,000 francs; silver, 3,900,000,000 francs. The ratio of value was then 15.1 to 1.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

HUSTONVILLE.

The Misses Adams will sell Millinery at cost for the next 30 days.

Those indebted to me by note or account are urgently requested to call at once and settle. W. C. Greening.

The C. E. auction given at Mr. T. L. Carpenter's Friday night was a roaring success literally, judging from the laughter, prolonged, deep-toned, hearty, resonant, shrill and slivery, big guffaws, little guffaws, middle-sized guffaws and finally hoarse guffaws that proceeded from the assemblage. John Riffe proved an excellent auctioneer and disposed of elegant human goods of the man species, well wrapped in white linen, at marvelous prices, varying from six to 105 cents. Ah, that was an opportunity that forlorn maids did not let slip by, but with excited mind and reckless purse did they bid and bid until each marched off triumphantly with her purchase. Then the boys' turn came and each was expected to take his owner into supper, which was delightfully served and delightfully eaten. Mrs. Carpenter's house was indeed one of mirth that night. A large crowd was there and the sale and supper brought over $18. A. C.

The Hustonville Order of Red Men, on the afternoon of Dec. 25th, made its initial bow to the public and covered itself with glory. The novelty of the proceedings had attracted an immense number of people and the streets along the line of march were crowded with spectators. When the Red Men, about 30 strong, appeared in their handsome regalia and riding beautiful horses, they received great applause, and when they struck the trail of some inoffensive cowboys, the scene became exciting. After a thrilling chase and many hair's breadth escapes, the cowboys were captured and were on the verge of being burned at the stake, but were rescued by the very opportune arrival of Pocahontas in an automobile, accompanied by the Prophet. This concluded the street parade. In the evening the Red Men, assisted by a few pale faces, entertained a large audience at the opera house. The program, consisting of music by Misses Mary and Angie Carpenter, Camille Hopper, Dot Camnitz and Dolly Williams, and W. C. R. Williams, O. S. Williams, A. B. C. Dinwiddie, V. B. Morse, Jr., Howard Camnitz and J. Beecher Adams, a recitation by Miss Angie Carpenter and a farce by the members of the order, was splendidly rendered and evidently appreciated, as shown by the frequent encores. After the performance a banquet supervised by Mrs. D. S. Carpenter, was given at the Weatherford Hotel. The tables were decorated with holly and flowers and the courses were elegantly prepared. The guests were served by the braves in full Indian costume.

The entire performance was perfectly managed and reflects great credit on the L. O. R. M., of Hustonville. R. H.

A PROMINENT CHICAGO WOMAN SPEAKS.

Prof. Rosa Tyler, of Chicago, Vice President Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and it relieved me at once. I am now entirely recovered, saved a doctor's bill, time and suffering, and I will never be without this splendid medicine again." For sale by Craig & Hocker.

ROBERT NOAKS, a witness in the Goebel cases, is said to be in Canada. J. C. Maynor, of Corbin, who is bondsman for him, has become alarmed, it is said, and gone after him. Noaks is an ex-Lincoln county man.

The Davies county grand jury has indicted Mayor Small, the city council and the city of Owensboro on account of the alleged filthy condition of the city lockup at Owensboro.

A Kansas City woman who stole a ride on a street car seven years ago has just sent $5 to the company, saying that her conscience would not let her keep the money longer.

It is stated positively that fugitives W. S. Taylor and Chas. Finley will not be surrendered to the Kentucky authorities by Dublin, the new governor of Indiana.

The exportation of cotton from the United States for the year amounted to 18,000,000 pounds; eight years before it was less than 110,000.

John Doyle, of Bridgeton, N. J., has been put in jail 140 times for drunkenness. He is an umbrella repairer and is 40 years old.

George Boyden committed suicide near Evansville, Ind., because his divorced wife would not marry him the third time.

MATRIMONIAL.

Misson Pittman and Miss Lizzie Wren were made one at Berline Wren's on the 27th.

Samuel Breeding, aged 26, and Miss Lizzie Crase, 15, were married in Letcher county.

Theophilus Darnam, aged 19, and Miss Ida Vinson, 15, were married at the court-house last week.

Thos. Stephens, aged 80, and Miss Corbin, aged 65, a popular Hatcher county couple, were united in marriage yesterday.

Leella Bradshaw and Miss Laura Layton, of Garrard, were made one by Rev. R. R. Noel at G. W. Delford's last week.

Carl Strange, business manager of the Columbia Spectator, was married last week to Miss Lula White, an Adair county beauty.

Miss Addie Hiatt, the pretty daughter of George Hiatt, of Brodhead, was married last week to Harry Chasteen, of that county.

The marriage of Dr. Hodges and Miss Lettie Asher, 18, of Pineville, took place at Jellico. Miss Asher had pretended to go to Lexington on a visit.

Wm. Oatts, of Cooper, and Miss Ada Daugherty, of Steubenville, were married last week at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Ismael Daugherty, near Somerset.

Miss Ida Diekey, the handsome young lady of Cave City who has frequently visited Mrs. J. S. Rice here, was married last week to Mr. R. O. Creel. They will make their home in Birmingham.

Miss Lela T. Vaughan, who visited here last Spring with Mrs. I. N. Vaughan, was married last week in Richmond, Va., to Mr. George Starke, a prominent farmer of Hanover county.

Rev. A. J. Bachman, of Schaeffers-town, Pa., broke the record by marrying seven couples in less than an hour. In 22 years he has married over 1,300 couples, and he ties the knot so well that but few of them have resorted to the law to untie it.

Invitations are out to the marriage of the beautiful Miss Virginia Methum Bowman, daughter of Mrs. Mary Withers Bowman, of Danville, to Chas. Perry Cecil, Jr., at the Christian church in that city on the 9th. Miss Bowman is well-known here, where she lived several years.

Mr. J. S. Goode, of this place, and Miss Cora Rodas, of Shelby City, eloped to Jeffersonville last week and were married. The bride is a charming brunette while the groom is a clever young man of good morals and business qualifications. Mr. W. H. Goode accompanied the pair on their trip.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The handsome Baptist church at Cynthiana was damaged several thousand dollars worth by fire.

A watch service was held at the Methodist church last night and many members of that church watched and prayed until the new year came in.

A Kokomo, Ind., doctor made this confession in church: "The greatest sin of my life was committed at the last election. A fellow gave me $20 to vote for McKinley and I took his money and then voted for Bryan. Next time I will vote as they pay me."

An effort is being made among the Christian people at Middlesboro to start a hospital for the benefit of the poorer class of mountain people. The members of the Northern Methodist church are back of the movement, and it is said the church may be converted into a hospital.

Rev. George Darsie preached his 23d anniversary at the Christian church at Frankfort last Sunday. This church has 601 members and raised $1,011.48 last year. It supports its own missionary in China. Rev. Darsie is a brother of Mrs. E. H. Walker, of this city—Winchester Democrat.

THIS AND THAT.

The Detroit street railways have been united in a company with $12,500,000 capital.

His friends here and elsewhere will be glad to learn that Mr. Bedell Chancellor is slightly better.

In a general fight in Morgan county Wallace Hill was shot and killed and his brother, Lee Hill, fatally wounded.

J. C. Bonta & Bros. have rented the John L. Cassel farm, west of Burgin, for this year for $1,000. They have 700 acres of wheat and it is looking well.

A mail pouch containing, it is estimated, $100,000 in checks, negotiable papers and money, was stolen from the railroad station at Wyandotte, a suburb of Detroit.

THE MOTHER'S FAVORITE.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the mother's favorite. It is pleasant and safe for children to take and always cures. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough and is the best medicine made for these diseases. There is not the least danger in giving it to children for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Craig & Hocker.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Mrs. Felix Vaughn died at Somerset Friday.

Perryville has gained one citizen since last census.

Two Mormon elders were ridden on a rail by angry Whitley county citizens. James M. Brown was appointed postmaster at Rockholds, Whitley county. Jim Dan Popa, the Negro who killed John Baker in Boyle, was held without bail.

Doe Nelson, an aged Negro, regarded by his race as a hoodoo, was found dead at Danville.

Cal Kennedy fatally shot Fox Lovelace while returning from church in Wayne county.

Mrs. Mary Russell, of Nicholasville, was adjudged insane. She formerly lived at Crab Orchard.

Dill Holland was killed and E. T. Garrard was seriously wounded in a fight at a dance near Manchester.

Postmaster Frost, of Alton Springs, has resigned and will go in the fruit raising business near Junction City.

W. B. and E. B. Hansford, editors of the Republican, bought the plant of the Paragon Co., at Somerset, for $392.

C. C. Becker, a Bryantville merchant, accidentally shot himself with a 41 calibre pistol. His condition is critical.

The total amount of Garrard county property is $4,379,177. There is something of an increase over last year's assessment.

W. E. Singleton, the Lexington photographer, who once lived in the Southern end of this county, is dead of consumption.

Some one dynamited the house of Dan Baker, colored, at Nicholasville. A corner of the house was torn off, but Baker's slumbers were not disturbed.

Thomas Kidd shot and probably fatally wounded Mrs. J. C. Bryant at her home in Whitley county. Kidd was drinking and claimed it was an accident.

Mrs. Toba Lovins was found dead in bed at her home near Pittsburg. Her 3-year-old child had fondled and cried over its dead mother's body for three days, and had almost perished from cold and hunger when the discovery was made.

Edgar Parrott, a 12-year-old boy in Marion county, thought he heard a burglar trying to enter the family residence. He seized a shotgun to defend the house, and the weapon was accidentally discharged, wounding four members of the family.

Four men have been killed and one wounded in the Clay county fights within the past two weeks, while two other Clay county men were killed and two wounded in a fight just over the Clay line during the same period, making a total of six killed and 12 wounded within two weeks.

The L. & N. railroad people have begun to do some extensive work at Corbin. New tracks are being graded, a new yard office is about completed and a new freight depot will be erected in a few weeks. Work will be begun soon in enlarging the round house and placing new machinery in the shop.

That Senatorial Problem Again.

LANCASTER, KY., Dec. 31.—As much has been said in reference to the right of a county in this Senatorial district, to name the candidate for the ensuing term, I beg leave to submit the following:

The legal order is Lincoln, Boyle, Garrard and Casey—Casey coming after Garrard, and as Garrard has the office now, it follows logically that it is Casey's time to name the candidate.

The assertion that a county once gave away to another goes for naught, because when a county fails to take advantage of her time, she cannot claim until her time comes again and all the others go into the field for the nomination for that time. The school boy's game of marbles will demonstrate this. This has been the custom in the district, so we need not go further back than 16 years to solve the problem. In 1885, Casey furnished the candidate; in 1890 Boyle; in 1893 Lincoln; in 1897 Garrard and of course it will be Casey's turn in 1901. Now if Casey does not put up a man, the field is open to the other three counties to name a candidate and in 1905 it will be Lincoln's time to nominate. This is the only solution of the matter. Very Respectfully, A DEMOCRAT.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physic. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

Pat Crowe, an old-time crook, was identified as the man who made inquiries concerning the ownership of the house in which young Edward Gubbah was confined, after he was abducted.

Six men were killed and several others hurt by an explosion of dynamite in a railroad construction camp near Dublin, W. Va.

E. O. WALTON.

THE doctors seem determined to cut off all the good things of life. The use of oysters has often been discouraged on the ground that they were under certain conditions dangerous mediums of conveying disease, especially germs of typhoid fever. Now the physicians are said to have forbidden another relish nearly as popular at this time of the year. Celery has come under the ban of the doctors, who say that it is equally well adapted to transmitting the poisonous element of the soil and carrying the germs of typhoid. Fortunately no one takes these discoveries very seriously, and people will continue to enjoy their celery with the toothsome bivalve and risk the chances of disease and death.

THE 19th century, glorious and memorable, has passed into history and today we begin the 20th, radiant with hope and resplendent with promise. Singularly fortunate is this generation in witnessing the outgoing of an epoch that has imprinted on the world's annals a record of unequalled progress and unrelayed advancement and the incoming of another which will undoubtedly make still larger and more marvelous contributions to human happiness, human enlightenment and to all earthly prosperity. Truly we live in a great age and right truly should we appreciate the wonders that are wrought as the days of this fast age rapidly roll by.

DELEGATE WILCOX, of Hawaii, is a pretty expensive luxury to the taxpayers of the United States. He has the distinction of having drawn a larger amount of money for mileage than any other man ever elected to Congress. The government allows 10 cents per mile, and Mr. Wilcox drew on a mileage of 5,300 for the round-trip, the total being, therefore, over $530. The actual cost of such a trip is about $200, not including meals.

IF Senator Jones is really going to resign as chairman of the National democratic committee why not make his successor a gentleman like Gov. James B. McCreary, who is not only a statesman who has the confidence of the people, but who has shown time and again that in political affairs he is a born general? In our humble judgment he is just the size in every way to fit the position.

HERSHEL V. GOODNIGHT, of Simpson, has shied his castor into the ring of Senatorial aspirants, which includes Gov. James B. McCreary, Judge James E. Cantrell, Congressman Dave Smith and Charley Wheeler and a raft of others with lightning rods up. We won't give him a name, but we do not mind telling our readers in strictest confidence that the race is already won and the prize nailed down.

GOV. MOUNT, the Indiana harbinger of indicted assassins, says he will return to his farm without regret. Neither will anybody else regret his departure from the political arena and the only regret that will be experienced when he returns to the vile earth from which he sprang, unwept and unburied, will be that he went unburied.

IT is not often that son succeeds father in this way: In 1871 President Grant appointed John M. Francis, the founder of the Troy, N. Y., Times to be minister to Greece. Francis' son succeeded him as editor and proprietor of the Times, and he in turn has just been appointed minister to Greece by President McKinley.

PERSONS wishing legal business transacted in the Hoosier State should write to Taylor, Moore & Miller at Indianapolis. We don't know the latter two fellows but are pretty well posted as to the senior member, who the courts of this State would like to get a chance at. He is a sleek individual.

A LYON county man's life was saved by a high standing collar. An enemy attacked him with a knife and the collar kept his jugular from being severed. The average dodo has great respect for his jugular and that class will wear higher collars than ever now.

OUT of a total of 15,000,000 votes cast at the last election the prohibition candidate for president got only about 200,000. This is not very encouraging to the "cold water party," but its members keep grinding along, hoping to do better next time.

THE Paris Reporter, John L. Bosley, formerly of this place, editor, has ceased publication. It has never had a liberal patronage, proving that the republicans of Bourbon do not care for an organ.

EDITOR SOMMERS, of the Elizabethtown News, has the sympathy of the press in the loss of his wife. Christmas brought only sorrow to him.

ABOUT the worst thing the new year and 20th century brings us is a partisan republican court of appeals.

IN answer to a telegram from the Atlanta Journal ex-President Cleveland said he did not vote for McKinley. He didn't take the time to say he voted for Bryan—which of course he didn't do.

EDITOR S. F. ROCK, of the Richmond Register, is passing under the rod of sorrow. His excellent wife has just died of paralysis.

POLITICAL.

Judge James E. Cantrell, of Georgetown, is a candidate to succeed Senator Deboe.

Secretary of State Hill is arranging for the compilation, printing and distribution of 50,000 copies of the new election laws.

Admirers of the Hon. W. J. Bryan sent him 11 turkeys for Christmas. He chose the one sent by Capt. Jim Williams, of Louisville, for Xmas day.

Bland Ballard, chief deputy, is having his house hold goods moved, from Richmond to Danville. He evidently thinks the collector's office is going to stay at the latter place.

W. T. Watson has been appointed postmaster at Nina, Garrard county; J. S. Barnes, Lowell, Garrard county; E. O. Dewitt, Gudgel, Anderson county and Ed Blackburg, Cora, Anderson county.

State Senator Washburn, of Pennsylvania, who was elected as a populist, has announced that he will vote with the republicans. His action gives Quay control of the organization of the State Senate.

Gov. Beckham announced that he would offer a reward of $150 each for the apprehension of the murderers of John Happleman, night watchman at the plant of the Green River Asphalt Company at Louisville.

Secretary of State C. B. Hill has designated the Lexington Morning Democrat as the other daily with the Courier-Journal to publish the election returns as officially declared. The law requires that they be published in two dailies.

The democratic State central committee held a brief meeting at Covington, adjourning after a session of 10 minutes to meet at Frankfort, Jan. 17. The only action beyond this was the adoption of a resolution offered by Congressman John W. Vreeland, of the 5th district, recommending to Gov. Beckham the appointment of Charles B. Poyntz, of Mayfield, as the democratic party's member of the State election commission.

THE owners of the Middleboro Opera House will convert it into a livery stable. If Walton's Opera House were converted into something of the kind it would bring lots more revenue to the owners.

254.—James C. Field accompanied the Hustonville crowd on their hunt to Casey and they killed in all 254. He says that Mr. J. G. Weatherford, of Milldale, went with the crowd and carried the game.

THE pocketbook advertised in our last issue belonged to H. B. Boone, who came after it Wednesday. It didn't contain as much money as it did when it was lost, but he was glad to get back as much as he did.

"THE Miller's Daughter," presented by the young people of Crab Orchard at that place Friday night was a most enjoyable entertainment. About $25 was taken in and the audience was greatly pleased at the show.

HUSTONVILLE'S population is given by the last census as 125, or 10 less than 10 years ago; Crab Orchard 345, a falling off of 68; and Rowland 390, a decrease of 122. What has become of the people; have they all moved to Little Britain?

THANKS—Mrs. S. M. Spoonamore, of Hubble, has our thanks for a liberal sample of a half dozen cakes, any of which was good enough to take the blue tie. The black or fruit cake she had on exhibition at Lancaster was as good as it was pretty.

BOUGHT A CHURCH—Mr. I. M. Bruce the liveryman, has bought of Mr. T. M. Goodnight for $1,600, the old Christian church on Depot Street, and will convert it into a livery stable. The lot has a frontage of 111 feet on Depot Street and runs back 163 feet.

DIVIDENDS.—Both the Lincoln County National and First National Banks declared their usual 3 per cent. dividends yesterday and each institution carried something to the surplus fund. The Hustonville National Bank declared 5 per cent. and carried one per cent. to profit and loss.

MR. EDITOR: permit me through your paper to extend my sincere thanks to our many friends for their liberal donations on Christmas eve, also, for the many substantial expressions of good will received during all the past year. I assure you dear friends, this kindness is appreciated. May the riches of God's grace abound with you all. S. M. Rankin.

OFFICERS of the Maccabee lodge of this place will be installed Wednesday night and much important business will be transacted. A large attendance is requested.

COLUMBIA has organized a Commercial Club. Stanford had one for about two weeks, but what became of it even the officers and directors would have a hard time telling now.

ON and after today our terms will be cash or 30 days. No accounts will be run longer than the latter time and we shall expect those who ask us for credit to be ready to settle on the 1st of each month. Your account is ready for you and you are earnestly requested to call and settle. Beasley Bros.

NEW MILL.—Morris Fred has leased for 10 years the ground where Mr. William Daugherty's shops now stand and will begin in a few days to build a flouring mill and later supply it with the most modern machinery. Mr. Fred has done well with his exchange and hopes to receive as liberal patronage when he gets his new enterprise in operation.

THE Danville News attempts to take the Stanford Hop Club to task because it refused to admit a number of young bloods from that town to its dance here on the 27th, but we wish to call the News' attention to the fact that no person who had received an invitation to attend, was denied admittance to the ball room. When a person fails to receive an invitation to an entertainment, it is usually taken as evidence that he is not expected on that particular occasion. S. H. C.

RANDALL COOK, of Lincoln county, has sued Editor W. P. Walton for the sum of $25,000 damages by reason of the publication in the INTERIOR JOURNAL of an article regarding a trip Cook made to Frankfort during the exciting times at the State capital. It's out of reason to expect an editor to employ detectives to ferret out the truth of every little 2x1 item published, and they have to take lots for granted in getting out copy. Not all newspaper men are willing to make quick correction of any mistake, and they always do so when a person has enough fairness to go to the editor like a man and tell him of his mistake. But some people are prone to go to law, and when coached by some jackleg lawyers take advantage of every opportunity to do so.—Central Record.

OSTEOPATHY.

This Science, originated and developed by Dr. A. T. Still, of Kirksville, Mo., depends on the principles of Anatomy and Physiology for its results. It requires no knife, no drug, no rubbing, no surgical operations, and claims nothing supernatural. Osteopathy views man as a machine of so many parts, its keynote is adjustment. When all parts are properly adjusted and not overworked, health is the result. Some of the diseases treated by us: Nervous Prostration, Headaches, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Catarrh, Weak Eyes, Granulated Lids, Colic, Heart, Liver, and Lung Diseases, Constipation, Piles, Gall Stones, Enlarged Prostate, all Stomach and Intestinal troubles, Diseases of Bones and Joints, Spinal Curvature, Deformities, Stiff Joints, Paralysis, Incontinence of Urine, Locomotor Ataxia, Female Diseases a specialty. Consultation Free.

A New Year's Greeting.

TO OUR PATRONS AND FRIENDS:

We have a sigh of regret for the passing away of the Old Century. For more than the last decade it has been exceedingly kind to us. Our success in your midst has been phenomenal. We have watched and have seen each successive year's volume of business show an increase over its predecessor. We have seen hundreds of new customers added yearly. First from our immediate vicinity, then gradually branching out until this past year our business from the Counties of Casey and Rockcastle has been sufficient to have satisfied the average merchant as a year's business.

We fully realize that our sincerest thanks are due our patrons and we most heartily extend them to you.

We have tried hard to please and make it a point that no dissatisfied customer shall leave our door. It stands to reason that after our long sojourn with you and our continued success we are certainly deserving.

With the advent of the New Year, we come before you stronger than ever, prepared to make prices that defy competition. If you are one of our customers, we are satisfied you will come again. If you are not, come and try us. We will convince the most skeptical.

We trust you have had a pleasant Christmas and heartily wish you a Happy New Year with success to crown all your undertakings.

KILLING.—Tecumseh Waters was shot and instantly killed at Kingsville Christmas day by Thomas Lee, who at his examining trial before Judge Jas. P. Bailey Saturday was allowed bail in $500. John and Thomas Lee had been deputized to arrest Waco Waters, a brother of Tecumseh, and it was during the attempt to take him in charge that the killing occurred. Waters was shot twice, one ball striking him in the shoulder from the rear and the other in the forehead as he turned around. Lee claims that he believed Waters was going to kill his brother John and that he shot to prevent him from doing so. He testified that Tecumseh Waters had his pistol presented as if ready to shoot, but others testified that it was from one of his hands. Waco Waters was wanted for shooting in the town limits.

AT the annual election of the Odd Fellows William Hamilton was elected N. G., C. L. Dawes, V. G., A. C. Sine, Secretary, Will Stone, Treasurer, and J. T. Harris, Host.

THE Boyle county man who has eaten 1,200 eggs this year, is enjoying rather expensive diet now. The Advocate says he eats regularly two for breakfast and two for supper.

It is said that Judge G. M. Davidson will be the republican nominee for representative in this county. We are surprised that the ex-Congressman should accept such an empty honor.

G. T. ASHLOCK has bought of J. T. Leavell, administrator of H. M. Powell, the stock of goods at Gilberts Creek and has taken charge. Mr. Ashlock is a splendid young man and should do well in his new line.

WE raise a howl here. The census only gives us 1,651 inhabitants, when a blind man could tell we have at least 2,000. We are glad to know, however, that we are larger than Lancaster, if the census does only give us 11 more people.

A PRIVATE letter from H. H. Singleton at Waynesburg says: Sorry to inform you that on the morning of the 19th between 3 and 4 o'clock my saw mill burned. Loss about $700; but no damage was done to the lumber yard close by. I am going to rebuild the mill on same grounds and will aim to be saving by Jan. 15th. Would be glad to get a few bills from your town for 2x4, 2x6, 2x8 or 1x6, or boxing; in fact anything that is manufactured at a first-class country saw mill. Anything you can do for me in this line I will gladly appreciate.

THAT good democrat and clever gentleman, Hon. George T. Farris, of Lancaster, announces in this issue his candidacy for re-nomination for State Senator. Having served in that capacity he is better prepared to serve the people and that he is a runner is attested by his race three years ago when he carried this district, which many thought was reliably republican. Senator Farris' work in the troublesome times of the last session of the Legislature has endeared him to the people, many of whom will be glad of the opportunity to further honor him.

THIS following was sent from McKinney to the Lexington Democrat and we give it for what it is worth: Miss Pauline Francis, who 108 years ago was born in a log cabin, where the town of Lancaster now stands, died Friday night. She was the last surviving member of a family of 12 children, which blessed the union of Robt. Francis and Lucinda Tonguegate. Until a short time ago all her senses were well preserved, and her physical powers were remarkable. Her vision was clear, teeth sound and hair but slightly tinged with gray. She remembered vividly the scourge of flux that visited Casey county in 1813, which almost depopulated the county. She was the only female in all the county that could be induced to go into infected families and care for the sick and dying. One night she closed the eyes of nine persons who succumbed to the disease in her presence. She was for many years a member of the Baptist church at this place and died in its faith, perhaps the oldest advocate of its doctrines in the State. She was buried near Kingsville, this county.

SOMERSET.—Very few changes have been wrought in the good little city of Somerset since the writer was there six months ago, although there is every evidence that the capital of Putnaski is holding her own. From a financial standpoint she is in far better shape for the last few months six saloon men have put $4,800 in the treasury for licenses and they are selling red liquor world without end. The defunct Somerset Banking Co. is still the talk of the town and its failure is felt by every man, woman and child in the town, either directly or indirectly. Knowing ones now say that the stockholders will have to pay a small assessment, which would be good news to our Lincoln county friends who held stock. Judge Shimeon Hicks, who had been a citizen of Somerset for 30-odd years, died last week, aged 70. Besides being a splendid man in every way he was a dyed-in-the-wool democrat, who never stopped fighting for that cause. Judge Hicks married a Miss Carson, of this place, and she with a number of children, all grown, survive. Democrats are not going to let the 1,000 republican majority of last year deter them but on the contrary will put out a full county ticket and make an aggressive fight. The republicans are mad after county offices and there are from two to a dozen for each office. Mr. John S. May, who married a Miss Thurmond, of Lincoln, is one of the many candidates for county clerk, with good chances for the nomination. A. C. Martin, formerly of Stanford, has opened a big store and is doing nicely. E. S. Gooch, J. D. Swain, R. M. Gooch, C. C. Gillispie and other ex-Lincoln countyites are prospering. John McLeath's store was broken into the other night and over $100 worth of jewelry is missing. Charlie Cundiff and his pretty bride, who was Miss Emma Alma Reed, of Covington, have returned from their bridal trip and have taken rooms at the Brinkley Hotel.

THE banks are closed and the post-office is observing Sunday hours on account of New Year's day.

THE C. W. B. M. will meet at the lecture room of the Christian church at 2 P. M., Wednesday. The members are urged to be present.

THOSE indebted to me please call and settle as have taken A. M. Pence in as a partner and the old firm's accounts must be paid. W. A. Carson.

Two happy hearts left here this morning for Jeffersville and it is more than likely they have been made one ere this. They are prominent young people and have been sweethearts for some time.

MR. A. M. PENCE has bought an interest in W. A. Carson's buggy and implement business and can be found there by those of his friends who want to buy any kind of vehicle, harness, farming implements, &c., at the lowest prices.

THE Christmas hop at Walton's Opera House Thursday night was a delightful affair. The ball was tastefully decorated with the club's colors, holly, pot plants, &c., the music by Selbert's Orchestra of Louisville was almost divine while the beauty and gallantry of this section were present and on their best behavior. The supper at the St. Asaph, which was enjoyed at intermission, was fit for the gods and elegantly served.

GUESTS who have returned from the golden anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Jones at Hartwell, O., report it delightful in every respect. Twenty-five guests consisting of children and grandchildren, besides a few intimate friends, were entertained at a 5 o'clock dinner. Each course showed the sumptuous manner of the Blue Grass regions in ante-bellum days, together with the finished art of the caterers of the 20th century. Many beautiful gifts, principally in gold, gladdened the hearts of the bride and groom and many friends echo our wish for many anniversaries of their 50th wedding day.

THE masquerade party given last Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shanks at their home, "The Oaks," in honor of Miss Sarah Baughman, was enjoyed by a large number of young people. The company presented a very ludicrous appearance when assembled in the drawing room and there was much guessing as to the identity of each person. All colors and races were represented by masks and costumes and there were also some very pretty, fancy costumes, such as flower girls, queen of hearts, etc. The "White House porter," represented by Mr. John H. Shanks, made a "hit" by his rendition of "Goo-Goo Eyes." Refreshments were beautifully served at the proper hour and as each couple passed into the dining room they were required to unmask. The evening passed too quickly for all and it was with regret that all took their leave after thanking their host and hostess for such a pleasant evening's entertainment.

THE CONTEST.—As usual, a small crowd gathered at Walton's Opera House Christmas night to attend the first annual contest for public school pupils gotten up by Mr. E. H. Beazley. Mr. T. J. Hill, Jr., was chairman and made a capital talk before the program began. Miss Sadie Baughman, of Beech Grove, failed to come and there were only four contestants: Miss Lella Belle Jones, Moreland, Miss Roberta O'Bannon, Stanford, Miss Eviline Taylor, Hustonville, and Miss Susie Elmore, Rowland. All the little ladies did well, but the judges, Rev. S. M. Rankin and Messrs. J. C. McClary and J. N. Saunders, thought Miss Susie Elmore the best and gave to her the $20 in gold. Misses Katie Merriam and Kate Waters rendered most creditably several piano selections and Miss Polly Taylor entertained the crowd for a few minutes with her splendid recital of the "Death of Gen. Jackson." Mr. Beazley lost a small amount, but is not discouraged over it and will have another contest for public school pupils at an opportune time during this year.

A fearful blizzard is raging in the West and Northwest.

GEO. T. FARRIS.

OF Garrard is a candidate for re-nomination for State Senator in this district, composed of Lincoln, Casey, Boyle and Garrard counties, subject to the action of the democratic party.

NOTICE

To the depositors who left wheat with me, I notify you that I have decided to build a flour mill in the same place where I am running the exchange. If you will come to my place I will let you have your wheat back or the money for the wheat, or I will furnish you the flour you will have to use until I start up my mill. I will do any way to suit you. The exchange from Dudders' will be taken off the first of Jan. I would like to ask any customers to be so kind as to pay me when I call on you because I have to square up with W. H. Traylor.
